

LATE RAMESH WARPUDKAR ACS COLLEGE SONPETH

Cultural Department

Rangoli competition

26 January 2022

Activity: Rangoli Competition on the occasion of Republic Day

Objective of the Program: To unleash the talents of the students. To inculcate patriotic feelings in students. To give scope to students' creativity.

Chief Guest: Dr. Vasant Satpute, Dr. Santosh Rankhamb, Dr. Kulkarni Vanita, Dr. Sunita Tengse

Event Venue: Late Ramesh Warpudkar ACS College, Sonpeth.

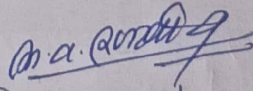

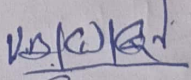

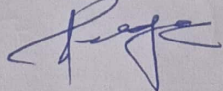

Brief Description of the Program:

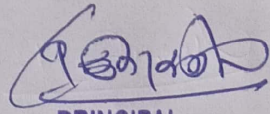

A Rangoli competition was organized on 26th January 2022 at Kai Ramesh Wapurkar College, Sonpeth, through the Department of Culture. Rangoli is the main cultural tradition of India. Rangoli is drawn in different regions of India on the occasion of various festivals. A rangoli competition was organized to foster creativity and innovation. In this competition, students Megha Kurude and Sheikh Ankita Vedamutha Mamta Kurde Tejas Khodve Witkar Ragini Prernavarma drew excellent Rangolis that evoked patriotic feelings.

Benefits of the program:

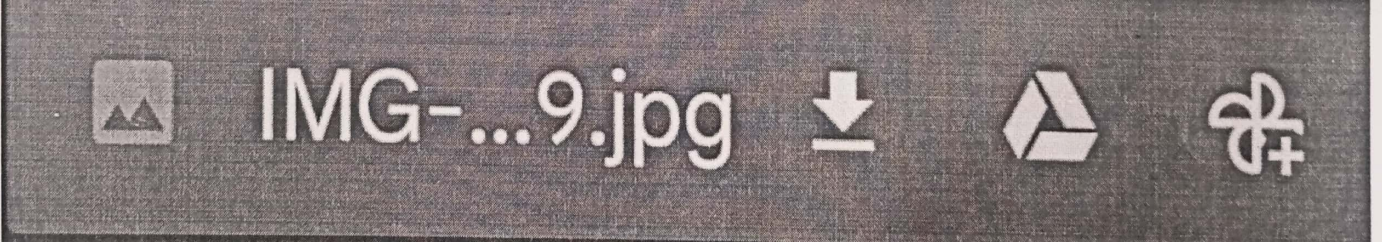

Rangoli is the ancient culture of India and is local with traditions. Rangoli is drawn in different regions on various festivals and occasions to evoke different emotions.

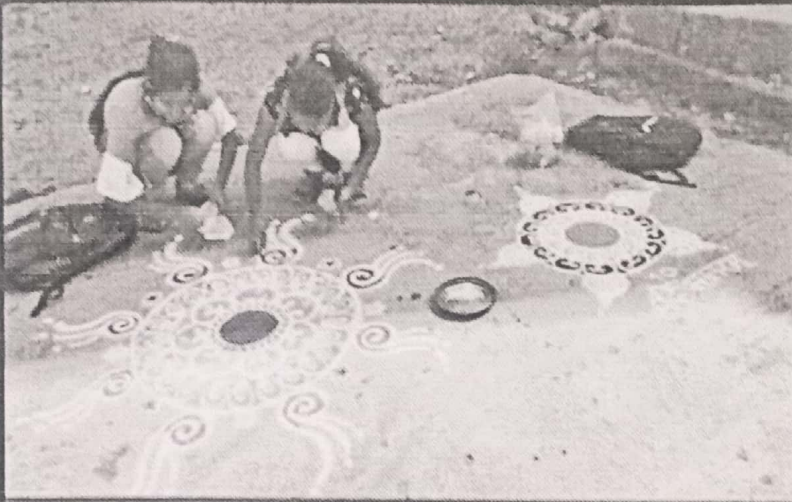

Participation: 19 students, five staff and 27 others participated in this program.

1) प्रा. डॉ. संतोष राखंब -
2) प्रा. डॉ. वनिता कुलकर्णी -
3) प्रा. डॉ. सुनिता टेंगसे -

PRINCIPAL

Late Ramesh Warpudkar (ACS)
College, Sonpeth Dist. Parbhani

IMG-...9.jpg

IMG-...8.jpg

Reply

