Abstract of the Programme

The department of English regularly organising the various activities for the enhancement of the knowledge of the college students regarding the English language and literature. Under various activities, the guest lecture is the crucial activity of the department. Every year, the department of English celebrating the birth anniversary of Sant Sevalal Maharaj. In this year, the jayanti was celebrated on the college ground. Hon. Shri Parmeshwar Kadam Saheb was present as the president of the program. Principal Dr. Satpute V.D. was the chief guest of the programme and Dr. Vitthal Jaybhaye was the chief speaker of the programme. Dr. Jaybhaye focused on the life and contribution of Sant Sevalal Maharaj. Sant Sevalal Maharaj was the great warrior and freedom fighter of India. Sevalal Maharaj has given some crucial messages to the society. He told that, "Serve the community as you do your own family, do not discriminate against anyone on any grounds, worship nature and don't detach from nature, Plant trees and protect trees and animals. don't sell animals to butchers, respect women, girls/daughters must be treated as Goddesses, do not practice violence, do not tell lies even at the cost of your own life; don't talk ill about others, do not steal other's belongings, protect the community language (Goar Boli) and costumes, respect all elders and love all younger ones, fight against the dowry, avoid being greedy, lustful, and self-interested, seek knowledge, always be an obedient student and a rigorous learner, help the weak and needy people, give water to the thirsty, and never sell water, protect the identity of community (be a Gor and not a Kor)." Apart from this, Dr. Satpute V.D. also focused on the life and contribution of Sant Sevalal Maharaj. Our teacher colleague Mr. Korde D.B. conducted the program as well as proposed the vote of thanks! All the staff members and teachers were present for the Jayanti program.

Outcomes of the Programme
The college students were aware about the overall contribution of Shri Sant Sevalal Maharaj. It was openly discussed the principles of Sevalal Maharaj in the Jayanti program. The staff members also raised various questions and we answered the questions. It was nice gathering of thoughts! It is the true outcome of the program. The Saints are true universal thinkers, where they think beyond the time.
